WHY SUFFER

When the right medicine will bring relief, read what Mr. J. C. Eisebrey of 146 Market St. Philadelphia writes about CANN'S KIDNEY REMEDY.

Canine Kidney Cure Co.
Centennial—It is in my heart to give you this word of cheer in reference to your very valuable medicine—Cann's Kidney and Bladder Remedy. It comes out in my sixty-seventh year. For nearly all my life I have been troubled with kidney trouble, and for the past ten years with bladder trouble, throwing off at times stones of one size with great pain so as to prevent me from walking at times some months ago I told you of my trouble, and you advised me stopping the medicine I was taking, and to use your C. K. R. as it would cure me. It has proven to be the best medicine I have ever taken. My friends say I look fine, that yellow, brownish lead is gone from my face, complexion clear, yellowness gone from eyes etc. When they ask what did I tell you Cann's Kidney Remedy did it. I simply say that yellow, brownish lead is gone without it. I take great pleasure in giving you this testimonial to suffering humanity, and you can take the liberty of sending any one to me to inquire more fully of the great value of C. K. R.

Yours truly,
J. C. EISEBREY

Another sufferer Rev. G. G. Rose of 221 E. Johnson St. Gettysburg, Pa., writes as follows:
Through the recommendation of Rev. J. M. Lyons I was induced to try Cann's Kidney Remedy. For 3 years I have suffered from urinary afflictions and they became more unbearable. Soon after using Cann's Kidney Remedy I felt relief and by the time I had used a few bottles I was a new man. I sleep well and am not compelled to get up at night, and considering my advanced age I can do just enough in my line of work. Hoping that many a sufferer may be induced to try Cann's Kidney Remedy I am gratefully yours,

Ordinary Naphtha Soap is Yellow

Because of the rosin in it.
P. & G. Naphtha Soap is white—no rosin in it.

Rosin is cheap
That is why most manufacturers of naphtha soap use it.

P & G. Naphtha Soap is white.

There is no rosin in it; nothing but high grade soap and refined kerosene.

P & G. Naphtha Soap does its work quickly, easily and thoroughly.

It does far better work with cold or lukewarm water than ordinary laundry soaps do, with boiling water.

Use it and get rid of practically all the discomfort of wash day—the boiling of clothes, the hard rubbing up and down the wash board, the necessity of keeping a hot fire going all day long.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap 5 cents a cake.

TAFT ASSAILS BRYAN'S RECORD.

Republican Nominee Enters
Contest in Real Earnest.

HE MAKES SEVERAL ADDRESSES

Gathering of League of Republican
Club at Cincinnati Affords Him an Opportunity to Counter Some of His Opponent's Thursts.

Cincinnati, Sept. 23.—The real activities of the campaign have begun for Mr. Taft, Republican presidential candidate. Three political addresses were made on him during his last day in Cincinnati before starting on his western trip. Not since the candidate was informed officially of his nomination has Cincinnati been so thoroughly awake politically as last night when marching clubs from Indianapolis, Columbus, Hamilton and other places lent the blare of torch and the blare of trumpet as an escort to the candidate who was the principal feature of the rally at the National League of Republican clubs at Music hall.

At noon Mr. Taft addressed the delegates of the national convention of negro Baptists, who had come from Lexington, Ky. Before this he took in on the convention of the National League of Republican clubs and at once was introduced for a speech. In these two efforts the candidate was brief. His expression of sympathy for the struggles of the negro race elicited warm applause from the Baptist preachers, who met the candidate at the Sinton hotel and his words to the convention were warmly received.

Payor Respects to Bryan.

It was last night, however, that Mr. Taft made his strongest effort. After reviewing before an audience which from the first showed a decided liking for him, the record of the Republican party as one of action and future reliability, he depicted his idea of the Democratic policy of "promise" and then devoted himself to an analysis of Mr. Bryan. This is the first time Mr. Taft has paid his respects to his opponent in any extended manner and what he said was listened to with great interest and considerable show of enthusiasm.

Proceeding the night meeting a parade was witnessed by the crowds which thronged the streets. The attendance at Music hall equaled the capacity, and it is the largest assembly hall in the city. Those who spoke besides Mr. Taft were President John Hays Hammond of the League of Republican clubs, the Rev. John Wesley Hill, pastor of Metropolitan temple, New York, and Job Hedges, an attorney of New York. The audience was regaled with a review of the entire procession, which marched down one aisle and up another in the huge Music hall.

Mr. Taft followed the famous Bialbo club, the last in the line of march, and his appearance was the inspiration for a demonstration which lasted for more than ten minutes.

Opening in West Virginia.

Charles W. Va., Sept. 23.—With the Republican party in West Virginia still divided on the question of a gubernatorial candidate, following the bitter fight between the Swisher and the Scherr factions, the latest development of which was the withdrawal of Charles W. Swisher as a nominee for governor, the Republican state campaign was opened under conditions that were somewhat confusing.

General Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio, made the principal address in the absence of Senator J. C. Burrows of Michigan, whom the national committee had arranged to send for the occasion.

A telegram from Senator Burrows announced that he could not get here.

Fifteen hundred persons filled the convention hall when the meeting was called to order by Congressman Gaines. Mr. Swisher was loudly cheered when he gave assurances that he retired "without strings" and was ready to give his hearty support to whoever was named as the nominee for governor.

General Grosvenor, aside from urging West Virginia Republicans to forget the state fight and line up to carry West Virginia for Taft, addressed himself only to national issues, and the speaker said changed his views with the changes of the moon.

MISSING GIRL'S BODY FOUND.

Chesterfield, Mass. Sept. 23.—The body of Miss Esther A. Hilbert, the nineteen-year-old girl who disappeared from her mother's summer home in this town Sunday September 17, was found in the edge of the woods near here. Death was evidently due to suicide. A double-barreled shotgun belonging to her home was lying by her side. Both barrels of the gun had been discharged.

Grand Rapids, Mich. Sept. 23.—John Murray Dowie, age eighty-three, father of John Alexander Dowie, the founder of Zion City, who was reputedly by his son, is dead at the home of his son's widow, Mrs. Jane Dowie on White Lake Muskegon county. He went to live with Mrs. Dowie when his son died.

Fall Garment Displays at Their Height!

The Exclusive Garment Store Begins the New Season With the Greatest Showing of Fall Fashions in Women's, Misses'
and Children's Wear Ever Made in Connellsville

The gratifying reception accorded our great Fall Opening justified us in anticipating a most successful future for this store in its new role as an Exclusive Garment Shop.

We were led to specializing our business along the lines of ready-to-wear apparel largely on account of the enormous growth of our ready-to-wear department when this was a general dry goods store. In fact, our garment business outgrew our facilities for properly handling it, and realizing that there was a splendid field for a store devoted entirely to women's, misses' and children's clothing and dress requisites, we decided to make this a "specialty shop" of which the people of Connellsville and vicinity might be proud.

Our many years of experience, reported by signal success in the particular branch of our business upon which we are now concentrating the efforts of our whole organization, were clearly reflected in the garment displays of our Fall Opening. The unusual beauty and general excellence of these lines were freely commented upon by all who viewed our initial style exhibit for the Fall and Winter of 1908-09.

In directing further attention to our complete stocks of Fall apparel, we wish to emphasize the fact that our former policy will be rigidly lived up to; that is, we shall continue to sell the best of everything in the lines we carry for the least that can buy it. As evidence of the fact that our claim is no broader than our ability to back it up, we submit the following values, of which we invite a comparison with any offerings about town. The following are typical of this store's present showing.

Our Women's Fall Tailored Suits at $25.

Every suit in this $25 group is a little masterpiece of artistic tailoring of the best quality of workmanship, beautifully trimmed with pure silk braid, lined with guaranteed satin linings and finished throughout in a manner which would complement a high class modiste.

The styles are the very best, the smart, mannish, strictly tailored effects, which are more popular this autumn than ever before. The fabrics are the newest, best-liked weaves, such as rich broadcloths, striped, worsted suitings and dressy chevrons of thoroughly serviceable quality and fine, lustrous finish. The colors are the soft autumnal tones which distinguish the better grades of tailored garments this year from ordinary kinds—blue, amethyst, plum, deep rose, ecstas, olive and the staple brown, navy and black.

We challenge a comparison of this Fall Tailored Suit, which is the best value we have ever offered at anywhere near this price. . . . $25

MANAGER OF NEW YORK GIANTS

AND HIS NEW $11,000 PITCHER.

In no direction is John J. McGraw's keenness as a baseball expert more conclusively demonstrated than in his judgment of young players. McGraw is credited with having had his eye on Marquard, the phenomenal young left-handed pitcher, long before he caused the purchase of the youngster from the Indianapolis club for $11,000. Marquard's case is one of the most remarkable in baseball history. This is only his third year in professional baseball, and he had a hard time breaking in. He played around Cleveland for a number of years and then went to the Waterloo, Iowa, team. That was in 1905. Last season he joined the Indianapolis club, but was later farmed out to the Canton, Ohio, team and rejoined Indianapolis at the opening of the present season. His record since then is well known.

NEW YORK BEATEN TWICE

If Giants Lose Today Chicago Goes Into First Place.

Chicago's double victory over New York on the latter's home grounds brought the leaders down to within six points of their formidable western rivals for the National league pennant. It now needs but the winning of today's game by Chicago to put that club in the lead in the race. So narrow is the margin and so easily may it be wiped out altogether that interest in the two games of the Chicago series yet to be played in at the highest pitch. Pittsburgh dropped back a bit, as compared with Chicago, by winning but one game to the latter club's two, but gained materially on New York.

Catch Sea Cow in a Net.
Norfolk, Va., Sept. 23.—A live sea cow, or manatee, weighing 1,500 pounds, was hauled ashore at Ocean View in a seine. The fishermen succeeded in getting it alive in a pen, where it is being kept as a curiosity. It is said to be of the species found on the coast of Florida.

Monument May Be Wireless Station.
Washington, Sept. 23.—No President Roosevelt will be left the decision of the question whether the Washington monument is to be used as a wireless telegraph station for conducting experiments with ships at sea and possibly across the Atlantic ocean. A request asking permission for such use has been before the authorities for some time.

SPORTING NOTES.

The Wausau team was an easy winner in the Wisconsin-Illinois League. The Williamsport team has won the Tri-State pennant three times in the last five years.

Jesse Burkett's Worcester team is a three-time winner in the New England League.

All of the teams that made up the Eastern League have won a pennant with the exception of Newark.

American Association teams played before the largest crowds this season in the history of the organization.

The South Michigan League race was a hummer, the Saginaw team having to play every minute to cop the pennant.

Jack Sullivan, the star catcher of Kansas City, refused to work for the Pittsburgh club the last month of the season without pay.

Jack McCarthy and Bill Beruhard, both former big leaguers, made good as minor league managers this season, the former at Springfield, Ill., and the latter at Nashville, Tenn.

As manager of Montreal last year Malaichi Klitzberg was a "downer," but this season as pilot of the champion Soranton team "Klit" was of the latest pattern and full with it.

Burlington and Quincy made a good try for the Central Association pennant, but the twice champion Waterloo team proved too strong for them.

Monument May Be Wireless Station.
Washington, Sept. 23.—No President Roosevelt will be left the decision of the question whether the Washington monument is to be used as a wireless telegraph station for conducting experiments with ships at sea and possibly across the Atlantic ocean. A request asking permission for such use has been before the authorities for some time.

Resurrecting the Fashions of 1795.

The leading characteristics of the new fashions may be summed up in the word "directoire." This derives its name from the governing body of France during the period between October, 1795, and November, 1799, when Napoleon was laying the foundation of the "First Empire." Women's dress during that period followed the attire of ancient Greece while that of the men was extravagant in its oddity.

In the revival of directoire styles men's dress plays scarcely a less part than that of women. Hence the two distinct types, the classic or feminine finding expression in wraps and evening gowns and the military or masculine which dominates the fashioning of tailored suits and is conspicuous in the flaring lapels, large buttons and sashes which closely follow the military uniforms of the directoire period.

Every suit represented by us gives full expression to the narrow shoulders, small hips, long close sleeves, broad pointed revers and high collars that strongly bespeak their origin. We present many striking models that are exclusive with us and which are absolutely authentic in every detail and the suits of the present season are a mass of little details, each of which revert to some important feature of the garb of years ago. The marked departure from the styles of last season make it imperative that your selection be made from stocks, every garment of which is authoritative. They cost no more than the kind that have been bought at random.

See the Suits We Are Selling at $18.00

In no way can we more strongly emphasize our buying superiority than in the presentation of these suits. Fabrics are exclusive and stylish, the lines and trimmings faithfully portray the fashions of the directoire period, large buttons, satin and velvet trimmings, long classic lines that will place at defiance any competitive offerings. We have established an enviable reputation for style. We are going to prove with these suits that no establishment in this section can even approach our values. It's as important to obtain correct style in a garment at this price as it is in higher priced gowns.

A Superb Showing of Suits at $25.00

Five years of specializing in $25.00 suits means more than an empty claim of superiority. It means knowledge gained by experience. And you'll find this knowledge exemplified in every suit we present at this price. The "different appearance," the snappy and superior style of our garments is due alone to the infinite care we give to little details and to the fact that we can demand and get (at no added cost) many little kinks that others would be refused. This is the advantage we gain through conducting the biggest suit section in Western Pennsylvania, outside of Pittsburgh.

WRIGHT-METZLER COMPANY

Individuality in Millinery Waists Are as Different as Can Be.

We've "shopped around." We wish you would. There's a mighty big difference in these hats of ours and some others we've seen at a like price. Shapes are large this season, even at $5.00, don't let any one tell you to the contrary and these we are showing are distinctive—trimmed with fancy feathers, directoire ornaments, satin velvet, etc., also velvet and satin shapes. You know of our achievements in the past. Well, we will eclipse them all with these hats. They are absolutely superior to any millinery you've ever been shown at any like price. We've built up a wonderful millinery business with "correct styles" and when we augment these styles by so little a price, it's bound to cause a furore.
